Update on Letters of Intent

On 28 October 2025 the boards of directors of Frankel UK Bidco Limited ("Frankel"), a newly-formed company to be indirectly owned by Long Path Co-Investment Fund #6, LP (acting by its general partner, Long Path Co-Investment Fund #6 GP, LLC), Long Path Smaller Companies Fund, LP (acting by its general partner Long Path Fund GP, LLC), Long Path Smaller Companies Master Fund, Ltd. and Long Path Opportunities Fund II, LP (acting by its general partner, Long Path Opportunities Fund GP, LLC), and Idox plc ("Idox") made an announcement pursuant to Rule 2.7 of the Takeover Code (the "Rule 2.7 Announcement") of a recommended all-cash acquisition by Frankel of the entire issued, and to be issued, ordinary share capital of Idox (the "Acquisition"), intended to be implemented by means of a Court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act (the "Scheme").

The scheme document in respect of the Acquisition (the "Scheme Document") was published and made available to Idox Shareholders on 20 November 2025.

On 5 January 2026, Frankel announced that it intended to implement the Acquisition by way of a recommended takeover offer as defined in Chapter 3 of Part 28 of the Companies Act, (the "Offer" or "Takeover Offer"), rather than by way of the Scheme.

The offer document in respect of the Offer (the "Offer Document") was published and made available to Idox Shareholders on 15 January 2026. Capitalised terms used but not defined in this announcement have the meanings given to them in the Offer Document.

As set out in Appendix 3 to the Rule 2.7 Announcement, Frankel had received irrevocable undertakings and non-binding letters of intent from certain Idox Shareholders to vote in favour (or, where applicable, procure voting) of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the Resolutions to be proposed at the General Meeting (or, in the event that the Acquisition is implemented by way of an Offer, to accept or procure the acceptance of the Offer), in respect of a total of 106,033,494 Idox Shares, representing approximately 22.97 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Idox as at 27 October 2025, being the last Business Day before the date of the Rule 2.7 Announcement. These include a non-binding letter of intent from Rathbones Investment Management ("Rathbones") in respect of 35,203,152 Idox Shares, representing approximately 7.62 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Idox as at 27 October 2025, being the last Business Day before the date of the Rule 2.7 Announcement (the "Rathbones Letter of Intent"). This also included a non-binding letter of intent from Canaccord Genuity Asset Management in respect of 10,480,000 Idox Shares, representing approximately 2.59 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Idox as at 27 October 2025, being the last Business Day before the date of the Rule 2.7 Announcement (the "Canaccord Letter of Intent").

The Lombard Irrevocable ceases to be binding if, prior to the Takeover Offer becoming or being declared unconditional, a third party announces a firm intention under Rule 2.7 of the Takeover Code to make a competing offer to acquire the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of Idox and the consideration payable under such Competing Offer represents a premium of more than 10 per cent to the price per share then being offered by Frankel under the Takeover Offer;
6. On 4 January 2026, Frankel received a non-binding letter of intent from Sand Grove Capital Management LLP to accept the Takeover Offer, in respect of 26,221,658 Idox Shares (the "Sand Grove Letter of Intent"). As a result:

- the total number of Idox Shares which are subject to the Rathbones Letter of Intent has reduced to 2,479,647 Idox Shares, representing approximately 0.53 per cent. of the existing issued share capital of Idox as at close of business on the last Business Day prior to the date of this announcement;

Notice to U.S. Idox Shareholders

The Offer is being made for the securities of an English company that is listed on AIM by means of a contractual takeover offer under the Takeover Code and English law and is subject to disclosure and procedural requirements and practices that are different, in some cases materially, from the tender offer rules of the United States. The financial information included in this announcement has been prepared in accordance with accounting standards applicable in the United Kingdom and thus may not be comparable to financial information of U.S. companies or companies whose financial statements are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

It may be difficult for U.S. holders of Idox Shares to enforce their rights and any claim arising out of the U.S. federal laws, since Frankel and Idox are located in a non-U.S. jurisdiction, and some or all of their officers and directors may be residents of a non-U.S. jurisdiction. U.S. holders of Idox may not be able to sue a non-U.S. company or its officers or directors in a non-U.S. court for violations of the U.S. securities laws. Further, it may be difficult to compel a non-U.S. company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court's judgement.

In accordance with normal UK practice and pursuant to Rule 14e-5(b) of the U.S. Exchange Act, Long Path or their nominees, or their brokers (acting as agents), may from time to time make certain purchases of, or arrangements to purchase, Idox Shares outside of the U.S., other than pursuant to the Acquisition, until the date on which the Acquisition becomes Effective, lapses or is otherwise withdrawn. Also, in accordance with Rule 14e-5(b) of the U.S. Exchange Act, Canaccord will continue to act as an exempt principal trader in Idox Shares on the London Stock Exchange. These purchases may occur either in the open market at prevailing prices or in private transactions at negotiated prices. Any information about such purchases will be disclosed as required in the United Kingdom, will be reported to a Regulatory Information Service and will be available on the London Stock Exchange website, www.londonstockexchange.com.

U.S. Idox Shareholders also should be aware that the transaction contemplated herein may have tax consequences for U.S. federal income tax purposes and under applicable U.S. state and local, as well as foreign and other, tax laws and, that such consequences, if any, are not described herein. U.S. Idox Shareholders are urged to consult with legal, tax and financial advisers in connection with making a decision regarding this transaction.

Forward looking statements

This announcement (including information incorporated by reference in this announcement), oral statements made regarding the Acquisition, and other information published by Frankel and Idox contain statements which are, or may be deemed to be, "forward-looking statements". Forward-looking statements are prospective in nature and are not based on historical facts, but rather on current expectations and projections of the management of Frankel and Idox about future events, and are therefore subject to risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results to differ materially from the future results expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements.

The forward-looking statements contained in this announcement include statements relating to the expected effects of the Acquisition on Frankel and Idox (including their future prospects, developments and strategies), the expected timing and scope of the Acquisition and other statements other than historical facts. Often, but not always, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking words such as "prepares", "plans", "expects" or "does not expect", "is expected", "is subject to", "budget", "projects", "synergy", "strategy", "scheduled", "goal", "estimates", "forecasts", "cost-saving", "intends", "anticipates" or "does not anticipate", or "believes", or variations of such words and phrases or statements that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", "should", "would", "might" or "will" be taken, occur or be achieved. Forward looking statements may include statements relating to the following: (i) future capital expenditures, expenses, revenues, earnings, synergies, economic performance, indebtedness, financial condition, dividend policy, losses and future prospects; (ii) business and management strategies and the expansion and growth of Frankel's, Idox's, any member of the Wider Frankel Group's or any member of the Idox Group's operations and potential synergies resulting from the Acquisition; and (iii) the effects of global economic conditions and governmental regulation on Frankel's, Idox's, any member of the Wider Frankel Group's or any member of the Idox Group's business.

Although Frankel and Idox believe that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, Frankel and Idox can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future. There are a number of factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements.

These factors include, but are not limited to: the ability to complete the Acquisition; the ability to obtain requisite regulatory and shareholder approvals and the satisfaction of other Conditions on the proposed terms and schedule; changes in the global political, economic, business and competitive environments and in market and regulatory forces; changes in future exchange and interest rates; changes in tax rates; future business combinations or disposals; changes in general economic and business conditions; changes in the behaviour of other market participants; changes in the anticipated benefits from the proposed transaction not being realised as a result of changes in general economic and market conditions in the countries in which Frankel and Idox operate, weak, volatile or illiquid capital and/or credit markets, changes in tax rates, interest rate and currency value fluctuations, the degree of competition in the geographic and business areas in which Frankel and Idox operate and changes in laws or in supervisory expectations or requirements. Other unknown or unpredictable factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those expected, estimated or projected in the forward-looking statements. If any one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialises or if any one or more of the assumptions proves incorrect, actual results may differ materially from those expected, estimated or projected. Such forward-looking statements should therefore be construed in the light of such factors. Neither Frankel nor Idox, nor any of their respective associates or directors, officers or advisers, provides any representation, assurance or guarantee that the occurrence of the events expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements in this announcement will actually occur. You are cautioned not to place any reliance on these forward-looking statements.

Specifically, statements of estimated cost savings and synergies related to future actions and circumstances which, by their nature, involve risks, uncertainties and contingencies. As a result, the cost savings and synergies referred to may not be achieved, may be achieved later or sooner than estimated, or those achieved could be materially different from those estimated. Due to the scale of the Idox Group, there may be additional changes to the Idox Group's operations. As a result, and given the fact that the changes relate to the future, the resulting cost synergies may be materially greater or less than those estimated.

Other than in accordance with their legal or regulatory obligations, neither Frankel nor Idox is under any obligation, and Frankel and Idox expressly disclaim any intention or obligation, to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
